

FUNERALS

THE HON. GEOFFREY HOWARD

The King was represented by the Earl of Harewood at the funeral of the Hon. Geoffrey Howard, which took place at Coneysthorpe Cemetery, near Malton, yesterday afternoon.

The Archbishop of York officiated, assisted by the Bishop of Whitby, the Rev. E. Smith, and the Rev. G. Williams.

The principal mourners included:—

Miss Christian Howard, Mark and George Howard, Lord Rhayader, the Dowager Lady Methuen, the Hon. Lawrence Methuen, Rhoda Countess of Carlisle, Lady Cecilia Roberts, Lady Mary Murray, Lady Aurea Macleod, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Howard, Lieutenant-Colonel the Hon. Oliver and Lady Kathleen Stanley, Lord and Lady Methuen, the Hon. Anthony and Mrs. Methuen, Mr. and the Hon. Mrs. Barnes, Lady Constance Howard, Mr. Eric Howard, Miss Howard, the Hon. Mrs. Montagu, the Hon. Mrs. Serocold, Mrs. Crewdson, the Earl and Countess of Carlisle, Major Macleod, Mr. Charles Roberts, Admiral Stapleton Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wood, Mrs. Arnold Toynbee, Mr. Geoffrey Russell, Mr. W. Roberts, Mr. B. Murray, Mrs. Nicholson, and Mr. J. Moyne.

Among others present were:—

The Earl of Feversham, Lord and Lady Arundell, Mr. Harcourt Johnstone, M.P., Brigadier-General Sir Edward and Lady Whitley, Lord Bolton, Sir Paul and Lady Patricia Latham, Sir Richard Sykes, Lady Grimthorpe, Colonel the Hon. Tatton Willoughby, Lord Stanley, Mr. Walter Rea, M.P., Major Turton, and 14 Deputy Lieutenants, as well as representatives of the North Riding County Council and the Territorial Force Association.

Viscount Halifax was unavoidably prevented from being present.

LORD HEADLEY

Prayers were said for Lord Headley at the Woking Mosque yesterday before the burial in the Moslem Cemetery at Brookwood. The Imam of the Woking Mosque officiated, and the principal mourners included:—

Lady Headley, the Hon. R. P. J. G. Allanson-Winn, the Hon. C. R. Allanson-Winn, and the Hon. O. G. Allanson-Winn (sons), the Hon. Mrs. C. R. Allanson-Winn (daughter-in-law), Mr. Arthur, Mr. Gerald, Mr. Harold, and Mr. Sidney Fawcett, and Mr. M. G. Johnson (nephews), the Hon. Mrs. Maryon-Wilson, Mr. G. Maryon-Wilson, Dr. H. A. Bashford (brother-in-law), Mrs. Buchanan-Hamilton, Sir (Hubert) Omar Rankin, Mr. Piracha (president of the British Muslim Society), and representatives of the Turkish Embassy and the Albanian and Persian Legations.

The Rev. W. N. and Mrs. Manning (cousins) were unavoidably prevented from being present.

SIR GEORGE DOUGLAS

The funeral of Sir George Brisbane Douglas took place at Springwood Park, Kelso, yesterday afternoon. The Rev. D. G. Hamilton officiated. The principal mourners included:—

Mr. William S. Douglas (brother) and Mr. Douglas, Mrs. F. J. Douglas (sister-in-law), Mr. Nat Allgood, Mr. Stokes, Mrs. Stokes (niece), Mr. John Stokes, and Lady Blanche Douglas.

Among others present were:—

The Master of Polwarth, Brigadier-General R. Scott Kerr, Colonel Scott Kerr, Sir James Dalziel, Mr. W. J. Murray (representing the Earl of Minto), Mr. G. A. Russell (representing the Earl of Home), Mr. G. H. J. Dove, Mr. T. R. B. Elliot, Colonel T. G. Taylor, Major C. J. Balfour, Major A. C. Marshall, Mrs. Wauchope, Mr. Arthur Cayley, Major C. H. Scott Plummer, Major Ewing, Sheriff Mitchell, ex-Sheriff Boyd, Mr. Dickson, Mr. James and Mr. Robin Stormonth-Darling, Mr. J. R. C. Smith, Mr. P. S. Short.

Mr. J. L. Arnott, Mr. B. G. Turnbull, Captain Palmer-Douglas, Dr. James Curie, Mr. J. G. G. Leadbetter, Mr. Peter Croall, Mr. Shiell, Mr. Watson, Mr. John Scott, Mr. Thomson, Mr. J. S. Johnston Rutherford, Mrs. Ashcroft, Mr. Johnston, Mr. Hogarth, Miss Cunningham, Mr. George J. Sherriff.

Provost Scott, the Rev. R. C. Kerr, the Rev. R. C. Linton, the Rev. D. H. Stewart, the Rev. Father Braccin, the Rev. P. B. Gunn, the Rev. D. Denholm Fraser, the Rev. William McCallum, the Rev. W. L. Sime, Mr. George Landles, Mr. Harry Plummer, Mr. Farmer, and Mr. Howden.