

Court Circular.

INVESTITURE AT WINDSOR.

WINDSOR CASTLE, Nov. 15.

The King and Queen visited Queen Alexandra before leaving Sandringham this morning.

Their Majesties' Guests have left York Cottage.

The King and Queen, attended by the Lady Katharine Coke, Lt.-Col. the Lord Stamfordham, Capt. B. Godfrey-Faussett, R.N., and Maj. Clive Wigram, arrived at the Castle this afternoon.

Their Majesties travelled by special train on

Council, who also expressed the hope that he proposed to reside at Walmer Castle, has written that he looks forward to residence at Walmer Castle as much as other duties admit.

The Countess of Selborne will pay a visit next week to Mr. Balfour and Miss Balfour at Whittingehame.

Viscount Crichton left London yesterday for Lausanne.

At a meeting of the Islamic Society held in London on Saturday evening, it was announced that Lord Headley had become a convert to the Mahomedan faith. In a letter read at the meeting Lord Headley wrote, "Those who know me will believe I am perfectly sincere in my belief."

Lord and Lady Dunedin have returned to Edinburgh from London.

A Copenhagen telegram states that Lady Lowther, wife of Sir Henry Lowther, British Minister to Denmark, gave birth to a daughter on Saturday. Lady Lowther's condition is satisfactory.

Lady Beatrice Rawson has returned to Gravenhurst from London.