FUNERAL AND MEMORIAL SERVICES

THE KING OF AFGHANISTAN

A memorial service for the late King of Afghanistan was conducted by the Imam (Moulama Abdul Majid) at the Woking Mosque yesterday. After prayer Sirdar Ikbal Ali Shah gave an address of condolence.

Among those who attended were the Afghan Minister, the Saudi Arabian Minister, the Chargé d'Affaires for Persia, M. Mahmood Zada, and representatives of the Aga Khan, the Muslim Society of Great Britain, and of the Muslim World Conference. Lord Headley, president of the Muslim Society, was unable to be present through illness.
